Seminar organised by the UIA with the support of the Portuguese Bar Association

Bringing together the world's lawyers

For over 90 years, the UIA has been defending the legal profession and facilitating international contacts, cooperation and the exchange of knowledge among lawyers, while respecting their cultural and professional diversity.

Today, the UIA brings together several thousand members – lawyers or law professionals – and hundreds of bars, federations and associations.

Join the UIA and become a member of the world's strongest network of lawyers

- You will participate in the work of the UIA Commissions in Business Law, Human Rights and General Practice and share your experience with that of professionals from over 110 countries.
- You will also be able to join forces with the UIA, which, each year, provides its support to lawyers who cannot freely practise their profession. Everywhere in the world where rights of defence are threatened or the proper administration of justice is hindered, the UIA will make your voice heard.

Introduction

To start off the year, this UIA Seminar organised by the UIA Mediation and Conflict Prevention and the Sports Law Commissions, will discuss the growing importance of mediation for sports disputes.

Sports is one of the world's fastest growing industries and this Seminar will show why and how mediation should be utilised by pro sports to resolve conflicts, in particular in what concerns contract-related disputes. Not only is mediation a fast way to handle and resolve disputes, but it also has the potential to improve relations between stakeholders. This could be critical in the field of sports, in addition to having a more positive impact on the public opinion, particularly when the stakes and the visibility are as high as they are in some areas of sports conflicts. These are most of the times complex, as they involve different parties, with different perspectives and motivations, yet oftentimes also include aligned interests.

In this Seminar, during which we will have top mediation and sports specialists, we will address all these questions, and will end with a "Sports Mediation Simulation", where participants will be able to witness first-hand how mediation can play out in a sports dispute context.

We look forward to seeing you in vibrant and exciting Lisbon next January!
