Bringing together the world's lawyers

For over 90 years, the UIA has been defending the legal profession and facilitating international contacts, cooperation and the exchange of knowledge among lawyers, while respecting their cultural and professional diversity.

Today, the UIA brings together several thousand members – lawyers or law professionals – and hundreds of bars, federations and associations.

Join the UIA and become a member of the world's strongest network of lawyers

- You will participate in the work of the UIA Commissions in Business Law, Human Rights and General Practice and share your experience with that of professionals from over 110 countries.
- You will also be able to join forces with the UIA, which, each year, provides its support to lawyers who cannot freely practise their profession. Everywhere in the world where rights of defence are threatened or the proper administration of justice is hindered, the UIA will make your voice heard.

Introduction

The UIA Tax Law Commission, Foreign Investment Commission and Latin American Lawyers Forum joined efforts to put up a great seminar in São Paulo, Brazil, in March 2018: Tax Incentives for FDI (Foreign Direct Investment).

What is the state of art of tax incentives for foreign investment worldwide? Is tax incentive forum shopping still an available tool for multinational companies to choose their new investment country? What about defensive measures of states against tax incentives of other states? We will be discussing with colleagues from every part of the world how effective tax incentives may be for the attraction of FDI and how it is dealt with by the revenue agencies of host and investing countries. All of this in the most important capital for business in Latin America, but also in a most beautiful country known for its breath-taking seaside and lively culture.

Anyone who requires a visa invitation letter in order to attend the seminar should register and pay their registration fees no later than February 8, 2018 to ensure there is enough time to obtain a visa.

All cancellations will be refunded in full, minus €50 to cover administrative costs, provided that the UIA has received the registration documents and total registration fees no later than February 8, 2018.

If you register after this date, only 50% of the amount paid minus €50 to cover administrative costs will be refunded for cancellations due to visa refusals.

All cancellations due to a visa refusal must be sent in writing and reach the UIA before the seminar. Cancellations must be accompanied by a proof of visa refusal.

If your visa is issued after the seminar date or if you do not have proof of visa refusal, you will not be entitled to a refund.

All registrations received by the Union Internationale des Avocats (UIA) along with the full payment of fees corresponding to the events selected will be confirmed in writing.

The UIA reserves the right to cancel or postpone the seminar to a later date, change the seminar venue and/or programme, make any corrections or modifications in the information published in the seminar programme and cancel any invitation to participate in the seminar, at any time and at their entire discretion, without having to provide any reasons for the same.

Neither the UIA, nor any of its managers, employees, agents, members or representatives shall be held responsible for any loss or damage, of any nature, suffered (directly or indirectly) by a delegate, accompanying person or a third party following any cancellations, changes, postponements or modifications.

The contractual relations between the UIA and each participant (delegate or accompanying person) in relation to the seminar are subject to French law and jurisdiction, to the exclusion of any other law. Paris is the city of jurisdiction.

“Force majeure” means any events external to the parties, of both an unforeseeable and insurmountable nature that prevents either the client or the participants, or the agency or service providers involved in organising the seminar, from executing all or part of the obligations provided for in the present agreement. By express agreement, such will be the case in the event of a strike affecting the means of transport, hotel staff, air traffic controllers, an insurrection, a riot or any prohibition whatsoever decreed by governmental or public authorities.

It is expressly agreed that for the parties, a case of force majeure would suspend the execution of their reciprocal obligations. At the same time, each of the parties shall bear the burden of all the expenses incumbent upon them, resulting from the case of force majeure.

The organisers decline any responsibility in case of any health problems existing prior to the seminar that may lead to complications or be aggravated during the entire period of the stay: pregnancy, cardio-vascular problems, any allergies, special diets, any disorders under treatment and not yet consolidated on the day the seminar starts, psychic or mental or depressive illness, etc. (Non exhaustive list).
